

Preliminary Conference Programme

FPOP 2014

The (New) Art of the Possible

Provisional Conference Programme

Wednesday 25th June, Shropshire Conference Centre, Mytton Oak
Road, Shrewsbury, SY3 8XQ

08:15 Morning tea and registration

Morning Session Chair: Professor Esme Moniz-Cook

09:00 Professor Graham Stokes

Delivering objectives 11 and 13 of England's National Dementia Strategy from Within.
Developing the workforce to deliver excellence in dementia care in care homes. Eating the elephant

09:45 Jenny La Fontaine, Tanya Knibbs & Dr. Anna Buckell :The FPOP paper on pre-diagnostic counselling

10:30 Tea and exhibitions

11:00 Professor Richard Cheston: Living well with dementia groups: 10 week support groups for people affected by dementia

11:45 Keynote Address (Alzheimer's Society)

Mr. George McNamara

Dementia: A national challenge - improving outcomes for people with dementia

12:15 Una Holden award presentation -

Lunch and Exhibitions

12:45 Research posters and presentations

Dr. Mike Bird:Students in residential Care

Project

-A reminiscence group in stroke rehab

13:00 Research posters and presentations

-Staff perception of recovery - The retreat

-Michelle's story - A carer's journey

13:15 Afternoon Session Chair: Reinhard Guss

13:15 Professor Bob Woods

Dementia supportive communities: The role of creative arts programmes

14:00 Professor Esme Moniz-Cook

Timely psychosocial Intervention in dementia care: how can this become a reality?

14:45 Tea and cake. Exhibitions

15:15 Workshops / Seminars

Stream A

Dr. Mike Bender and Gilly Constance: Empowering the community of older people who may have early stage dementia
(90 minute workshop)

Or

Stream B

Dr. Steve Davies: IAPT with Older People

(60 minute workshop)

&

16.15 Professor Linda Clare and Dr. Sharon Nelis: IDEAL study on living well with dementia

16:45 Stream A

Dr. Paul Maloney: The Therapy Industry

Or

Stream B

Dr. Martin Bunnage : Screening for cognitive impairment

17:30 Exhibitions and Close

19:00 Conference Dinner, Drapers Hall, 10 St Mary's Place, Shrewsbury SY1 1DZ

Preliminary Conference Programme

FPOP 2014 The (New) Art of the Possible Provisional Conference Programme Thursday 26th June, Shropshire Conference Centre, Mytton Oak Road, Shrewsbury, SY3 8XQ

08:15	Morning tea and registration Morning Session Chair: Professor Graham Stokes
09:00	Professor Linda Clare Behaviour change to promote health and well-being in later life: findings from the AgeWell trial
09:45	Rachael Litherland and Reinhard Guss Good practice guidance in dementia service user involvement – examples from NHS, FPOP and DEEP
10:30	Tea and exhibitions
11:00	Workshops / Seminars Stream A Mr. Paul Whitby: The Francis Report and intelligent kindness, defence mechanisms in staff groups. Disgust, attachment and in groups/out groups Or Stream B Lauren Yates : Individual CST for dementia
11:45	Workshops / Seminars Stream A Dr. Adrian Treloar : Antipsychotic Use Or Stream B Dr. Candy Stone: The Oxfordshire Integrated Care Home Support team: New developments to address behaviours that challenge in care homes Or Stream C Dr. Kate Ross: The Impact of “Age Blind” Mental Health services
12:30	Lunch and Exhibitions
13:00-14:00	AGM 2014
			Research posters and presentations - Alcohol screening in cognitive impairment - Early onset dementia (family carers) - Screening in WAM CCG for dementia - Service user involvement with FTD 13:30
14:00	Workshops / Seminars Stream A Dr. Rosslyn Offord and Dr. Elizabeth Field: Narrative therapy with dementia Or Stream B Dr. Neville Hills: Design and dementia; more than decor
14:45	Workshops / Seminars Stream A Dr. Mike Bird: An attempt to help residential care staff resolve more challenging behaviour cases before reaching for the phone: Success and failure in an RCT of a clinical protocol Or Stream B Dr. Craig Newman: Computer supported assessment of dementia - current and future Apps from NeuroCoRe
15:30	Tea and Ice-Cream. Exhibitions
16:00	Workshops / Seminars Stream A Professor Jan Oyeboode : The experience of living with FTD Or Stream B Professor Ken Laidlaw: CBT augmented with applied gerontology for use with older people with more chronic depression and anxiety disorders.
16:45	Reinhard Guss The Dementia Workstream: Policy and Research
17:00	Conference closes

Preliminary Conference Programme

Preliminary Conference Programme