

Contents

- 1 Editorial
Arlene Astell
- 2 Chair's Letter
Sinclair Lough
- 3 Age equality – what does it mean for older people's mental health services?
Phil Minshull
- 6 Involving older people in training clinical psychology trainees
Padmaprabha Dalby & Kristina Lee
- 11 The impact of conjugal bereavement on older men's identities
Paul Wendon-Blixrud
- 21 Neuropsychological profiles of older people with Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI):
Are research criteria clinically useful?
Nada Dimcovic & Niamh Shanahan
- 29 The BIRT Memory and Information Processing Battery (BMIPB)
Anthony K. Coughlan, Michael Oddy & John R. Crawford
- 32 The use of Cognitive Stimulation Therapy for people with moderate to severe dementia:
Reflecting on the use of a manual-based therapeutic programme within a clinical setting
Kerry Parkinson & Caroline Knight
- 41 Burnout among care staff for older adults with dementia – the role of reciprocity, self-efficacy and organisational factors
Brigid Duffy, Jan Oyebode & Jo Allen
- 46 Just how challenging can older people be? Part 1: Selecting the appropriate tool for measuring aggression within services
Chrissie Johnson, Caroline Knight & Inga Stewart
- 66 Just how challenging can older people be? Part 2: Making the case for specialist services for risky and aggressive behaviour
Inga Stewart, Caroline Knight & Chrissie Johnson
- 76 One person's rubbish is another's treasure
Stéphane Duckett
- 79 Using holistic assessments in neuropsychological training
Louisa J. Shirley, Kevin M. Yates & Tim Diggle
- 86 Auditing day/night reports from three older people's psychiatric inpatient units:
A summary and reflections
Yvonne Hemmings & Louise Middleton
- 91 Evaluation of an Intermediate Mental Health Team for Older Adults
Michael Luckie
- 96 Letter to the Editor
- 98 Geographical Group Convenors as at 15 May, 2007
- 101 PSIGE Committee 2007/2008